

Wu Yingjing

Mr. Wu is currently in charge of the privacy protection work for the Technology Platform Business Group, Ant Group. He is committed to the research and compliance management of personal information protection in cutting-edge technological fields, including cloud services, artificial intelligence, distributed databases, and blockchain. Before his tenure at Ant Group, he served at Zhong Lun Law Firm and led several IPO and M&A projects. He holds the Master's degree in Economic Law from Renmin University of China.